DETAILED ACTION

Prosecution History Summary

Claims 1-19 have been canceled.

Claims 20-21 are pending and treated as set forth below.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/30/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

- 1. Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Regarding claims 20-21, Applicant's specification describes a "dynamic approval recalculation" which involves recalculating a list each time an approver approves a requisition. The specification goes on to read "This may be done, for example, to account for someone who delegated approval authority for a period of time, but resumes that authority at the end of that time period. With approval recalculation, the proper approver can be pulled back onto the list." (see Page 5, Paragraph 0026) . Pertinent to the allowability as indicated in the action mailed 7/27/07, Applicant claims a substitution of names upon delegation of approval authority, recalculating the approval list, and pulling a name of an approver back onto the list at a later time. The specification, however, lacks sufficient detail for describing the aspect of substitution and in fact neglects completely to describe this aspect of the invention. In turn, one of ordinary skill in the art would not be capable of making and/or using the claimed invention.

Art Unit: 3625

2. Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claims 20 and 21 recite the feature of "if one of the approvers has delegated approval authority to another person, substituting the name of said another person for the name of said one of the approvers". This feature is not supported by the original claims or specification, and is therefore considered new matter.
